

Declaration

The Intention of “No Gift Policy”

within the Department of Intellectual Property and officials’ performance Fiscal year 2025 (B.E. 2568)

The Department of Intellectual Property strongly adheres to the declaration of “No Gift Policy” and commits to the good governance, transparency and honesty to acquire faithful trust of the people. Hence, The Department of Intellectual Property executives hereby declare to perform our duties in accordance with loyalty, transparency and traceability. As the Department of Intellectual Property, the executives and officials hereby declare to resist all corruption and misconduct by objection to all gifts with before, during and after the performing duties under the principle of “No Gift Policy”.

Please be informed and adhered accordingly.

Declared on 26 November 2024

(Ms. Nusara Kanjanakul)

Director General

Department of Intellectual Property